BILL WITHERS

Bill Withers and Odyssey join forces to provide an entertaining hour of song this weekend on Soul Train.

To a string of hit albums and songs, Bill Withers adds his newest, "Lovely Day," "I Want To Spend the Night" and "Tender Thing," featured on his latest album, Menagerie.

His first single release, "Ain't No Sunshine," which won a Grammy Award as the Best Rhythm and Blues Song of the Year, was followed by such notable successes as "Grandma's Hands," "Lean On Me" "Use

Me," and "Heartbreak Road."

One of the newest singing groups, Odyssey, sing their hit single, "Native New Yorker," and "Easy Come, Easy Go" from their debut album, Odyssey.

Sisters Lillian and Louise Lopez, natives of Stamford, Conn., and Tony Reynolds, from Manila, Philippines Islands, combine Latin rhythms, rhythm and blues and pop to achieve a singing style both unique and contemporary.

Soul Train, produced and hosted by Don Cornelius, is sponsored by Johnson Products Co., Inc. of Chicago.

The magic of summer makes its sizzling mid-July entrance at the Las Vegas Hilton July 11 when the magical, musical tones of John Davidson and the phenomenal magical tricks and illusions of today's mater of magic, Doug Henning, come to the resort's main showroom for an engagement that promises to be a sure cure for this summer's heat blues.

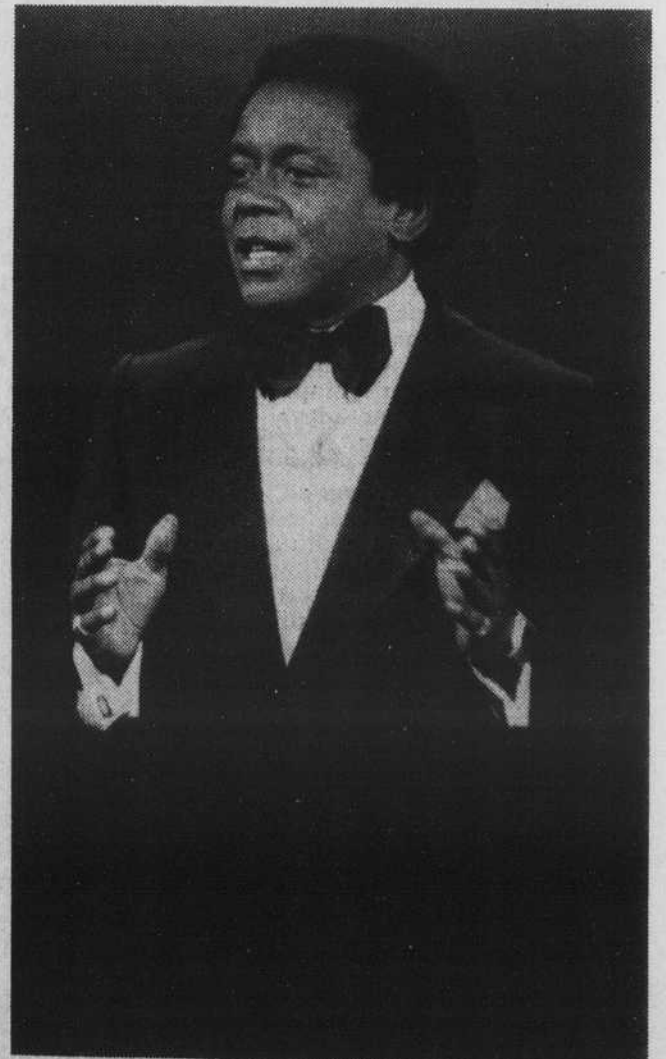

With something for everyone in this audience, Davidson, fresh from his sensational week-long Hilton appearance in June, promises as usual to be at the top of his form. The singer is a handsome charmer who genuinely pleases everyone with his sincerity and his special warmth and feeling. Audiences always relate to Davidson on a one-to-one basis, for the singer spends just about as much time with them as he does on the stage in front of his fans.

Doug Henning's first Hilton appearance last April still has the "Entertainment Capital" agog. Critics acclaimed the magician of television and theatre fame as "the most exhilarating act" to ever play Las Vegas. Certainly, there is none other quite like Henning. His illusions are masterpieces which leave even the real pros shaking their heads.

The Davidson-Henning spectacular will appear in the Las Vegas Hilton showroom at 8 p.m. and midnight through July 30.

A varied and exciting entertainment schedule rounds out the remainder of the late summer and early fall lineup at the Las Vegas Hilton:

- July 3- - Aug. 21 Bil Cosby/Tina Turner
- Aug. 22, 23 Japan's Number One Singing Star, Hiroshi Itsuki
- Aug 24 - Sept. 12 Lou Rawls/Sandy Ducas/Ron Douglas
- Sept. 13 - Sept. 21 Flip Wilson/Tina Turner
- Sept. 22 - Oct. 12 Liberace/Chinese Acrobats of Taiwan
