Mini Quiz

The Arthritis Foundation will feature the Arthritis Mini Quiz at the Jaycee State Fair to be held at the Convention Center from Aug. 2-6.

The Mini Quiz is a test-yourself exhibit which challenges, corrects and reinforces the viewer's knowledge about arthritis. Its take-home leaflet repeats the questions and answers and features a unique self-scoring device so the participants will have a record of their results.

The Nevada Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation is the sole voluntary health agency in the state devoted to the containment, cure and eradication of arthritis. Locally, we expand community services to the more than 72,800 men, women and children in the state of Nevada who suffer from this life-long disease.

There will be professional and volunteer staff on hand to answer any questions.

In addition to the many free publications that cover nearly every area of the more than 100 forms of rheumatic diseases associated with arthritis, fair-goers can pick up the new Mystic Grip Disc. This handy tool of more than a thousand uses was designed to aid arthritics.

For more information, contact the Arthritis Foundation at 5030 Paradise Rd., A-205, or call 739-9460.

First Speaker of Senate

A 19-year-old Las Vegas man has become the first speaker of the senate at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Marshal Willick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Willick of Las Vegas, was elected to the new position which was created by the revised constitution of the Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, CSUN.

A senior English major, Willick presides over the senate and initiates all new student senate committees.

Goals for his one-year-term include a student evaluation of faculty, student representation on the faculty hiring and firing committees, and the elimination of unauthorized expenditures by student government.

During his three years at UNLV, Willick has been active politically and socially, serving for two years as a student senator and as a member of the activities board. He was also a staff reporter for the student newspaper, the Yell.

Mini Parks

Three mini park signs, bearing the names of outstanding West Las Vegans, have been completed and installed, according to H. P. Fitzgerald, Executive Director of the West-side Community Development Commission.

The Ethel Pearson Park is located at North "D" Street and West Washington Avenue. The James A. Gay, III park is between I-15 and North "B" Street, and West Adams and West Owens Avenues. The Lubertha M. Johnson park is in Vegas Heights on the site of the one time Vegas Heights School at the intersection of Concord Street and Balzar Avenue.

Fitzgerald stated that appropriate dedication ceremonies are now being planned by his staff.

United States Department of Housing and Urban Development Block Grants Funds were used to furnish the parks with playground equipment, picnic tables, tennis courts and basketball courts, which were built in 1976. All three parks are scheduled to be equipped with toilet facilities using H.U.D. funds during the 1978-79 grant year, according to Fitzgerald.
