

AL BROWN
Human Relations,
Coordinator
736-5480

School District Human Relations Office Community News

Ruth Fyfe

HAPPY BIKERS - Ruth Fyfe Elementary School students, winners in the Bike Rodeo competition, proudly display their stoppies. Front row, from left to right, Matther Verson, Brad Heberlee, Lee Hejmanowski and Steve Spaulding. Back row, teacher Diane Davis and school principal Theron Goynes.

Brinley Jr High

BRUISIN' BRUINS - The Brinley Junior High School Girls Softball Team were the Clark County champions for 1978. Back row (left to right), Joy Miller, Janice Toyota, Rena Bell, Darlene Gagle, Janell Partridge, Tina Albert, and Paul Yohnka, coach. Middle row (left to right), Ronda Dudley, Rosemary Browder, Beulah Bell, Ellen Hardy, Valerie Bogdanovich, Michele Smail, Pam Johnson and Maureen Colvin. Front row (left to right), Mable Cartwright, Darcie Lamb, Jessica Lucier, Debbie Greve, Jemy Wells, Tammy Dittmann and Cinday Galindo. Not pictured, Terri Field.

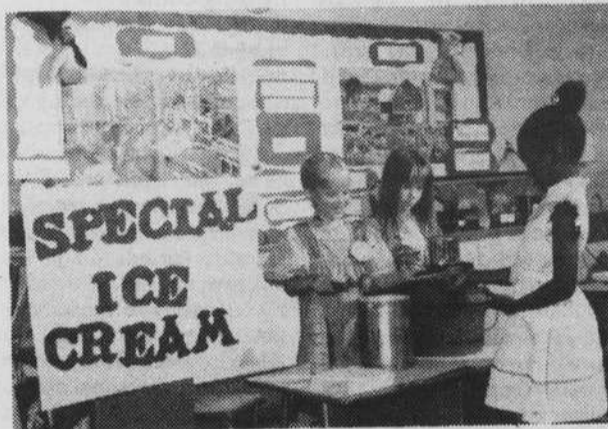

SCHOOL TRACK MEET - JAMES Holiday, left presents trophy to Helen M. Smith Elementary School students Natalie Wood and Darrell Jordan. The Smith track team took first place in this year's Tri-School Track Meet, which included teams from Red Rock Elementary School and Halle Hewetson Elementary School. Holliday, Athletic Director at Western High School, where the meet was held, is also active in the Red Rock Optimist Club, which annually donates trophies for the Tri-School Track Meet. The Hewetson team placed second, while Red Rock finished third in the meet.

CC Evening High School

EVENING SCHOOL GRADUATES - Mrs. Helen C. Cannon (far right) president of the Clark County Board of School Trustees congratulates five of the 200 students graduation this June from the Clark County Evening High School. From left to right, Brian Mallory, Tammy Amigone, Lenore Gentle, Ronald Barr and Pacifico Braganza.

Rose Warren

STUDENT LIFE STUDY - A look at urban versus rural living, plus a study of the economics of everyday life, where highlights of a lesson taught to Rose Warren Elementary School first graders inspired by the story of the "City Mouse and the Country Mouse." Representing country dwellers, students Josie Hitchcock and Adrena Ford sell on ice cream come to "city dweller" Kristi Nuoffer.

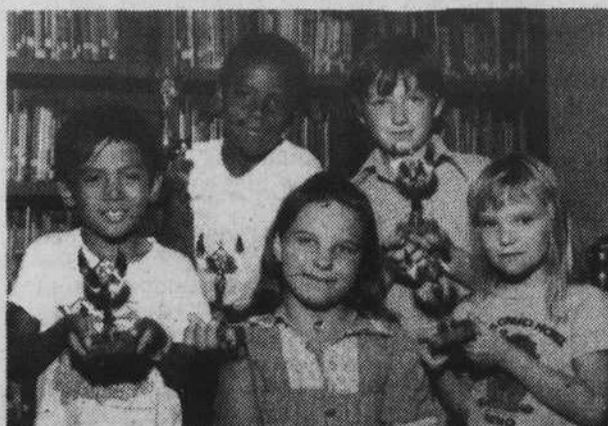

TRACK MEET - Team captains from elementary school participating in the annual Tri-School Track Meet held recently at the Western High School Athletic Field proudly display their trophies. From Helen Smith Elementary School, representing the first place team (third and fourth from the left) Darrell Jordan and Natalie Wood; the second place squad from Hewetson Elementary School, left, is represented by Brian Day Gail Dembiaski, and on the right, team captains from Red Rock Elementary School in third place, Army Yannone and Dona Gladden. The annual track meet is assisted by the Red Rock Optimist Club, which has continued over the years to provide trophies and ribbons.

Rancho

Rancho High School students learn CPR techniques in health class. Left to right, student Hazel Randolph practices heart massage on dummy as teacher Charles Razmic looks on, Diana Carrigan demonstrates mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and fire department paramedic/instructor Ted Kennedy keeps a watchful eye.

Mountain View

TOP STUDENT READERS - The five reading champions at Mountain View Elementary School read a total of 34,780 pages during the 1977-78 school year. Front row (left to right), second grade winner Loyd Hamilton, fourth grade-Melissa Kein, and first grade-Michele Walton; back row, fifth grade-Reginald Fobbs and third grade winner Bryon Gibbs. A total of 301 of the school's 540 students in grades one through five participated in the reading motivation program.

Note!