BILLBOARD DISCO CONVENTION

The recent BILLBOARD Disco Convention held in New York City at the Hilton Hotel proved a winner for all. TK Recording Artist Peter Brown was presented with a gold album for his premier recording, A FANTASY LOVE AFFAIR. His current top ten single, "Dance With Me" (from the same album) features some soulful vocalizing from fellow TK recording artist Betty Wright. Peter and Betty gleam over what a little teamwork will do!

GLAMOUR magazine announces that Jacquelyn Ann Mitchell, a recent graduate of Princeton University in Princeton, New Jersey, has been named a winner in the Top Ten College Woman Contest of 1978.

The 835 candidates who entered GLAMOUR's annual nationwide search for outstanding college students were judged on the basis of their campus and community activities, scholastic achievements and work experiences.

Ms. Mitchell plans to attend graduate school after working for several years.

SOUL TRAIN

Billy Preston and Esther Phillips appear on Soul Train this weekend, television's celebrated entertainment hour for "youth" of all ages.

Her first hit, recorded at age 15, "Double-Crossing Blues," was a million seller, as was her later and most popular, "What A Difference A Day Makes," released in 1975.

Dubbed by music critics as a great interpreter of feelings, Esther Phillips demonstrates her ability to mix soul, jazz and blues on "Love Addict" and "In a Soft and Subtle Way."

Billy Preston, the first Black American to work and receive label credit with the Beatles, and a former performer with Sam Cooke, Little Richard, Ray Charles and the Rolling Stones, sings and plays keyboards on "Wide Stride," "I'm Really Gonna Miss You" and "A Whole New Thing."

A child prodigy who played piano at age 3, Preston, at age 10, played the role of young W. C. Handy in the film "St. Louis Blues." He is much in demand as a collaborator with other artists as well as a soloist.

Soul Train is hosted and produced by Don Cornelius and sponsored by Johnson Products Co., Inc. of Chicago.
