TRAVELING ART SHOW - "I like this one better!" says Vickie Shelton (left) to fellow Red Rock Elementary School students Steven Pong, John Breen and Ronnie Bailey. Paintings being observed are from Bertha Ronzone Elementary School, and are part of a traveling art show sponsored by the Clark County Art Association.

TEACHERS LEARN - Junior High School Reading and Language Arts teachers receive in-service training at Von Tobel Junior High School as part of their training for the Language Arts Management System. Special training sessions were scheduled at each junior high school in Clark County.
