

Betty Wright Live!

Betty Wright's new TK-Alston LP, Betty Wright Live!, has been so popular that the contender for the Soul Queen crown has been hopping to concert dates everywhere from Augusta Georgia, to San Francisco, California. But Betty recently took time off in New York City where she visited Billboard Magazine's Annual Disco Convention at the Hilton Hotel. Although everyone was partying heavily, the queen of Disco, Donna Summer, and Betty took a few moments to "cool out!"

Jazz Great

Jazz pianist Buddy Montgomery will be featured when the Las Vegas Jazz Society presents the Buddy Montgomery Sextet in concert Sunday, August 13, 2 p.m., in the Hacienda Hotel's main showroom. With Buddy will be brother Monk Montgomery on bass and the Bob Pierson Quintet. General admission tickets are available at the Hacienda Hotel and Odyssey Records.

Buddy's keyboard artistry expresses his own unique style, timeless and unforgettable, and will be featuring selections from his latest album "Ties", on the Bean Label.

Member-only tickets are available at the Las Vegas Jazz Society Headquarters. For more information, call 734-8556.

Patti Labelle Goes Solo

For the second time since Labelle split, lead singer Patti Labelle has come out with an album as a solo performer. And for the second time, the album's range is as wide as the group's entire career.

Tasty is too good to eat. It can only be savored by the ear, the feet, and the hips. For an appetizer try, a calypso "Save The Last Dance For Me", or a hard hitting tempo, "Monkey See Monkey Do."
