Cherchez La Femme

Epic recording artist and flautist Bobbi Humphrey along with former Labelle member Sarah Dash give "Sugar Coated" Andy Hernandez, from Dr. Buzzard's Savannah Band, a real treat. Andy was quite shaken when Bobbi Humphrey informed him that he no longer had to "Cherchez La Femme" (Look For The Girl) because he now had two, and from the looks of things Andy can handle it! The activity all took place at the recent party thrown by RCA Records to celebrate the company's new association with Rocket Records. Pictured (left to right) Bobbi Humphrey, "Sugar Coated" Andy Hernandez and Sarah Dash.

A&M's Atlantic Starr

PBS Program on Gambling

The PBS series, 'Economically Speaking,' produced by WGLN, Erie, Pennsylvania, will air "Gambling" on the weekly program set for Thursday, August 24 at 7 p.m. on TV-10. Guest include Michael Shagin, member of the New York Off-Track Betting Commission and Peter Rueter, formerly Research Director of the Commission for Review of National Policy Toward Gambling. (The program repeats Wednesday, August 30 at 6 p.m.)
