Thought For Today

The man who knows right from wrong and has good judgement and common sense is happier than the man who is immensely rich! For such wisdom is far more valuable than precious jewels.

The Christmas Spirit

Many local residents, Holiday Spirit was filled with beautiful moments, though last minute effort of Mrs. Ruth Turner CCSD Human Relations Office. Calls were received requesting food and toys after December 15 with not many Agencies left to contact at this date.

Mrs. Turner, readily responded with all the sharing and love the Holiday Season denotes, with the assistance of Mrs. James Cox, food toys and Xmas trees were delivered to Las Vegas families, more than 75 children were recipients of new and used toys.

The Human Relations Office, extends gratitude to Captain Richard C. Fitton, Clark County Coordinator of the Salvation Army, Mrs. Fitton and Staff; also to Sgt. Allen of the Marine Corps Reserve for their many donations of food, toys and Xmas trees. Voicing the sentiments of the Human Relations Office, bring happiness and cheers is what Xmas is all about.

Have A Fuzzy-Gram!

Chaparral student Ed Covert dons a costume to become "Captain Fuzzy" as he makes his rounds at the school to deliver Fuzzy-Grams. Psychology teacher Denia Provenzano spearheads the annual fund raising drive to raise money to aid victims of Multiple Sclerosis. This year students hope to raise several hundred dollars selling Fuzzy-Grams at 25¢ each.

New School Site

On construction site of an elementary school to be dedicated in his name, former Las Vegas Mayor Oran Gragson sits astride heavy equipment during ground-breaking ceremonies. In the foreground are Gragson's wife Bonnie and Clark County School Superintendent Dr. Claude G. Perkins. Construction on the $1.7 million school at Bonanza and Honolulu is expected to be completed in August of 1979.
