

AL BROWN
Human Relations,
Coordinator
736-5480

School District Human Relations Office Community News

Teddy Bear (Kristina Kreyling) gives President Debbie Smith (on the left) and Teresa Crof-fet Sargent-at-arms a big Bear Hug. Human relations Club, J.C. Fremont Jr. High School Mr. Cox Principal. 733-8919.

This young lady is Valerie Renee McDaniel. She plays basketball for Cannon Jr. High School and averages 20 points a game. Valerie is a ninth grader and has been going to Cannon for two years. She has a 3.0 grade average and plans on going to college. After graduating from college she would like to become a professional model. Valerie is 14 years old, 5'9 and weighs 123 pounds. At this point, Valerie has not received any awards but plans on it in the future. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Purvis McDaniel.

OPPORTUNITY SCHOOL

Students pictured here are a part of a Behavioral Modification Program, at Jefferson, Biltmore and Washington schools. These schools have a weekly program where outstanding students are selected by teachers, and are awarded for their effort. There are certain goals to be met, before being selected. A student has to show outstanding performances, before becoming part of this selected group. There are several awards presented, one is a certificate of merit. Many students have been motivated by this event, and for them it has also been a great experience.

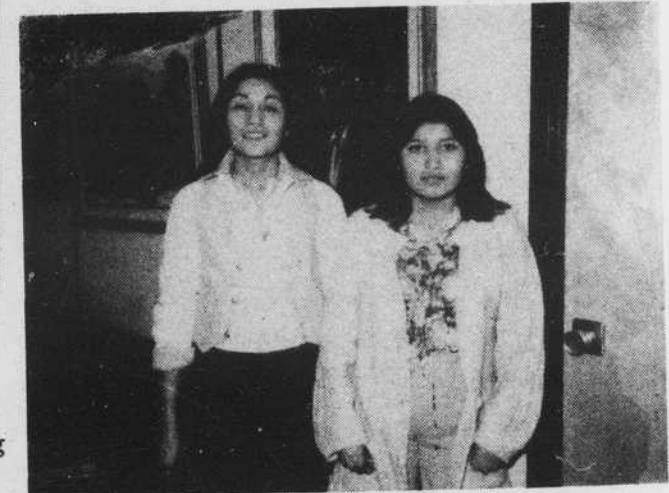

Mr. Mike Kinnard is Principal at Opportunity, Gregory Whitters, is Human Relations Worker.

These were the prize winners at Fremont's Halloween Party—Enjoying the delicious food, swinging music, and fun were Sherri Crocetti (Raggety Ann), Phyllis Ferrel (Raggety Andy), Eric Bodin (Painted man,) Ricky Wemet (as a member of Kiss), Kristina Kreyling (The Bear).

These Gibson Junior High School students were winners in the school's Fourth Annual U.S. History Projects Display. From the left, Robin Crafts, second place for a scale-model of the Titanic, Stacey Nitz, third place for an Apollo moonwalk quilt, and Sherie Glover, pointing to her first place winning project, a scale model of a sinking Lusitania. Students developed their own projects based on what they learned in class.

Shawna Simmons a sophomore and Stephanie Tom a junior, are both students at Moapa High. These young ladies are a part of the Moapa Band of Piautes Dancers, who will be performing at a program sponsored by the American Association Of Business Women, to be held at the Maxim hotel on December 18, 1979.

Dr. Jack Wheeler, left points to map of North Pole location he visited on a recent Arctic expedition, as Ruby Thomas Elementary School student Amy Wright looks on. At far right Jacqueline King, who accompanied Wheeler on the North Pole expedition, shows a slide to student Ambrose Gardenhire. While visiting the school the explorers showed a group of 300 students a slide presentation of photographs taken during the Arctic expedition.

Mrs. Louella Tom, is Tribal Education and Title IV Education Chairperson, working with the Moapa Band Of Piautes, on the Indian Reservation, at Moapa Valley.

Joan Barber and Brad Case, most likely to succeed.

Here Mrs. Tom, is demonstrating one of the costumes worn by the Band Of Piautes Dancers, These costumes were made by Mrs. Tom, and the young people.

Support The Voice