Sandra Trim-Dacosta Director

LeBaron Taylor, Vice-President of Black Music Marketing/CBS Records, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Sandra Trim-DaCosta to the position of National Director of Artist Development, Black Music Marketing/CBS Records.

In this capacity, Mrs. Trim-DaCosta will be responsible for developing plans and specific action programs for the development of CBS Records' R&B and Jazz/Progressive artists; assisting other CBS Records Artist Development personnel in producing live artist performances at CBS Records conventions and other company meetings; and developing and maintaining contact with club owners and concert promoters throughout the country.

Mrs. Trim-DaCosta joined CBS Records in 1976 as Manager of Press Information & Artist Affairs/Black Music Marketing before becoming Associate Director of Press Information & Artist Affairs/Black Music Marketing in 1977. Mrs. Trim-DaCosta graduated from Richmond college with a B.A. Degree in Sociology and Education. She will report directly to LeBaron Taylor.

Man And Boy

The Reel Thing Children's film series presents "Man and Boy" Saturday, January 20th and Monday, January 22 at participating Clark County Libraries. The 98 minute feature is scheduled Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Decatur Library, 720 S. Decatur and at 3 p.m. at the West Las Vegas Library, 1402 N. "D" Street. January 20th the film plays at 3:30 p.m. at the Las Vegas Library, 1726 E. Charleston and at 7 p.m. at the Sunrise Library, 1000 N. Nellis Blvd.

In the 1972 western/adventure Bill Cosby performs as a black man struggling to maintain his dignity and raise his family in the post Civil War Arizona Territory.

1. The "problem" of supply is non-existent. It is fictitious because, as the words of our text remind us, "God will supply every need." There is, then, more than ample supply. In the story of the feeding of the 5000, there were enough "leftovers" to supply or provide snacks for a small army.

2. The real "problem" is the human one of distribution. Some of us—indeed, perhaps, most of us—do not see ourselves rightly as "channels or instruments of God's grace or supply." When God's "supply" comes by or near, we grab for ourselves—sometimes not even claiming or seeing all that is meant or destined for us—and then we abandon our role as a part of the conduit or channel of God's supply. Have you been helping, as you should, in God's sharing and caring" work?

3. In the plan and economy of God, there is more than enough for all. One of the great hymns of the Church acknowledges God's grace and goodness and then says: "My soul, do thou thy part ..." That must be our universal prayer in order that God may supply for all our every need.

One of the best-loved prayer hymns among evangelical Christians is C.D. Martin's "God Will Take Care Of You." It speaks of the providential care and protection of God, as He provides for our every need.

*Be not dismayed, whate'er betide
God will take care of you;
Beneath His wings of love abide,
God will take care of you.*

*Through days of toil when heart doth fail,
God will take care of you;
When dangers fierce your path assail,*

God will take care of you.

*Nothing you ask will be denied,
God will take care of you.*

Refrain:

*God will take care of you
Through every day
O'er all the way
He will take care of you.
God will take care of you.
Amen*

In God's House, among His people, we are dramatically reminded of God's care, concern and love. Participate in God's loving family life each week.
