CLARK HIGH SCHOOL

CVT. GILBERT

Comprehensive reading -- Ms. Stella Lureas, third year teacher at CVT. Gilbert is assisting Joyce Felming, with a reading comprehensive question, as Michelle Cochran, waits her turn. Mrs. Lureas, was formerly with the Title I program at C.V.T.

Versatile in many ways -- If there is a single word in the dictionary describing Van Vereen, it would be versatile. Van, a senior, is the president of the student body, maintains a 3.4 average, plays football, is on the track team, and is also on the year book staff as the editor. Although Van, is so involved in school activities, he always finds time to finish his homework. In his spare time Van, coaches a basketball team at the Potowski Gym. His hobbies include: Racquetball, bowling, tennis and dancing, not to mention a few other things he enjoys, Van adds I just like to do everything.

a senior, and a varsity Cheerleader. Tonia Williams, Song Leader, is a Junior. Shirley Lyons, a Junior Varsity Cheerleader, Allison Kirkland, Varsity Cheerleader is a junior.

Albert Jacobs, Poses for the photographer. Last but not least Anthony Wade, is going to get a B+, because nothing is distracting him from this test.
