

AL BROWN
Human Relations,
Coordinator
736-5480

School District Human Relations Office Community News

A Goodman is known by his truthfulness; a false man by deceit and lies. Truth stands the test of time; lies are soon exposed. Deceit fills hearts that are plotting for evil.

JAMES JONES COMMUNITY CENTER

Jesus Lopez-Director-Jones Community Center, is located in a multi-cultural neighborhood. Hispanic being the majority. The Clark County School District's Human Relations Department, have shown great interest in some of the local Centers, especially James Jones. Many evening hours are spent by Human Relations Staff, especially Mrs. Ruth Turner, who serves as liason between the community and the Human Relations Office. Mrs. Turner coordinates various activities at Jones, organizes workshops and arrange for speaking engagements.

Some of the recently workshops conducted were by Sgt. Wilbur Jackson, Metro Police Juvenile Division and Mr. Gilbert Garcia, (STRIDE) Service Training And Research in Desegragated Education, Los Angeles, California.

Many programs are being implemented at the Center, to better serve the area youths. Bilingual materials are available. Boxing and physical fitness classes are taught. Other activities are pool, ping pong, tennis, basketball, dodgeball, arts and crafts, school and job counseling, drug counseling, folkloric dancing. Ms. Kathy Witness, Clark County Community College, are at present teaching mechanics, to some of the young ladies.

Rap session are held weekly by Mrs. Elida Hernandez, Ms. Hope Lezcano and Ms. Dea Zelino, all members of the Human Relations staff.

A FAKE SMILE-Tony Landeros, is one of many students that spends many afternoon and evening hours at the Center remodeling his old jalopy.

Right to Left, Magaly Alfalla, Evangeline, Juan Gonzales and Juan Lozoya. These youths are in a rap session with Sgt. Jackson, Metro Police Department. The main concern doing this session were Police harassment. Many questions were made clear.

Left to Right, Carlos Perez, Juan Lozoya, Juan Gonzalez and Willie Alfalla. Many activities at the Center requires skill and coordination.

Darin Garcia, is caught by suprise, while posing for this shot, his compotent trook this game of pool.

Togetherness is what it is all about at Jones Center; Here Children are waiting their term in a game of pool, which is a competitive sport. Mrs. Elida Hernandez, Human Relations Worker is stressing the importance of good sportmanship.

INFORMAL CONFERENCE: Tony Hernandez and Mrs. Elida Hernandez, (no relation) sit in an informal conference at the Center. Mrs Hernandez, Mrs. Lezcano, and Ms. Zelino, Human Relations workers, spend many evening hours assisting the youths in school-related problems.

Left to right, Edmundo Hernandez, Arceli Monorrez and Ramon Zerrano. Ramon and Araceli frequent the Center and give support, in this photo they are assisting Edmunds, with a picture book.