Revue 'n Roast Was The Most!

A zesty feeling was shared by some one hundred and fifty persons who attended the Tiffanys-12 Social & Charity Club 80's-N-Fashion Revue & Honorary Roast this past Sunday in the beautiful Love's Cocktail Lounge.

Some nine Love-Lee Awards were presented to persons in our community who are doing "little things that mean a lot" in our day to day living in this zany time of life. Wallace Sanford, a retired trumpet player was presented a Love-Lee Award for having performed over the past three decades with some of the noted giants in music and song...Nat Cole, Roy Milton, B.B. King and others. Even now the reaches and gets his brassy-horn and plays sweet soul music for his wife and friends. Hats off to Wallace Sanford!

Others who received Love-Lee Awards were: Neal & Lorrain Astern...Louise Hill...Paulines (N.L.V.) Womens Apparel...California Fashion...Stacy Banks...Clyde Dem & Her Band...The Donald Day Revue & Soul Queens...Johnnie's Men's Boutique...

Jimmie Love and Joe Lee Robertson received large plaudits and several plaques after they were so "love-lee" ROASTED. The crowd was pleased each and every moment.

The Sassy Fashion Models were too hot to trot. A lively well paced show left the crowd wanting more of what they had just viewed. So get ready to enjoy their next Fashion Fling set for Hot July 6th in the cool Love's Cocksil Lounge 500 W. Jackson Street.

Remember, this name: CHRISTY EWING! ...the cute little protegee of The Sassy Fashion Models Revue. Also Jackie Jackie, the latest addition to the revue. You get two for the price of one.

I spied: Mr. and Mrs. Henry & Joyce Brouard (he was one of the Roasters)...Eddie & Essie all dolled up duo-white suits, which were show stoppers in their own rights, seated with handsome Mr. Willie Henderson (reminded me of Papa, Momma, and Baby - (smile-I lov-u-all) ...Dottie Allen of Page One Production with her lovely mom, Mae Couyette, and a handsome young man on the fourth row set of seats look-N-good... look-N-good.

Grace McGlothen and Simmie Daniel were eye catchers in their stylish outfits (yes lawd) very la'chic...So was Marietta & Ernestine plus a host of others out on the town 'groovin' on a Sunday afternoon.

Hey Stacy! come on down off your cloud your dream came true with a Love-Lee Award...Johnnie McGee: turn on your SPOTLIGHT and let Darrel SPIN THE Records.

What U Need Is A Sugar Daddy. R. Fred Bates did a splendid job as a Roaster of Jimmie & Joe Lee. Plus, let it all hang out, as a model/actor in the "Sugar Daddy"-mini-theatre segment of the '80s-N-Revue. Mr. & Mrs. Ray Blankes Jr. & their guest were looking ROYAL & REGAL...

Poetess Eugenia Lucas moved the crowd with her fine-spun silky voice and body reading poetry that lifted the Beauty of The Black Women of the Earth 'Up, UP, Up, and Away' into a greater spectrum for her man so in need for the arts of true and pure cultural...E.L. also won a Chicken Wing Dinner from LOUISIANA SEAFOOD. 2-bad the other lady was too slow in reaching the stage to receive the sealed envelope which held the gift from BEN & BARBARA LAWSON, owners of the seafood eatery. It is never too late to stop by and fill-up the guts on fresh food.

Long live The Donald Ray Revue & The Soul Queens. They have got class and are in the right wings on any stage in my world. Donald is a hell-of-a Roaster! right, Jimmie Love? Long live Jeff (lil' Black-Ko-Jack) & The Staff of Love's Cocktail Lounge...Rest IN Peace, Donnie Love. 'Jackson Street Will Always Be Your Beat.' We are
