Displaced Homemaker Center Holds Confab

The Displaced Homemaker Center of Clark County Community College is sponsoring a "Women's Employment Opportunity Conference" on Saturday, May 10, in the Convention Center-East Hall. The conference is designed to meet the needs of women interested in re-entry into the job market, upward mobility, or a possible career change," explained Fern Latino, director of the Displaced Homemaker Center at CC-CC and coordinator of the conference. "The purpose of the conference is to bring employers and potential women workers together," Latino added, "and to allow women to explore diverse career options and possible job opportunities open to them." Employers and women workers will be encouraged to consider volunteer work as job experience, and to recognize homemaking skills as marketable skills in both traditional and non-traditional jobs. There will be a number

Getting Down To Fashion Basics

By Lei Strougther

For those of you who aren't quite satisfied with the line of makeup you are currently using, switch over to Biba. From the lightest shades to the darkest, Biba has an endless choice of colors to create your own individual look. Ask for Vera, your Biba representative at J.C. Penny (Boulevard Mall) and discover the makeup that's especially formulated to work wonders for you.

GETTING DOWN TO BASICS

1. EYE MAKEUP REMOVER: contains no soap. Non-oily, gently and effectively removes even the most stubborn mascara in seconds. Bottles are sterilized and microbiologically tested.

2. MILK CLEANSER: Contains no soap. For all skin types — dissolves makeup and dirt. Apply a small amount to skin and work in circles over entire face. Tissue off or rinse with warm water. Follow with Rosy Skin Tonic or Astringent.

3. BRISK GRAPEFRUIT ASTRINGENT: Specially formulated for oily skin — Use after cleansing — tightens the pores and leaves skin feeling tingly fresh. Apply sparingly with cotton pad.

4. ROSY SKIN TONIC: For normal-to-dry skin

(milder than astringent). Removes any residue of cleanser, while minimizing pores without drying. Apply sparingly with cotton pad.

5. MOISTURIZER: For all skin types. Light and non-greasy. Helps prevent your skin from losing precious moisture. Provides base for foundation — the last treatment step and the first step in makeup. Apply lightly over entire face and neck.

6. HAND & BODY LOTION: Contains Aloe. Water soluble — a lotion that moisturizes. Apply generously to hands, elbows and body after sun, bath or shower. Fragrance free.
