Swedish delight in 'Moviola'

by Frank Farrell

Kristina Wayborn was not sitting at Schwab's drug store counter, a la Lana Turner, but her snaring the juicy Greta Garbo role in NBC-TV's 'Moviola' segment, 'The Silent Lovers,' (airing May 20) rates in the Hollywood 'discovery' books.

With no film experience, Kristina, a young Swedish actress and protegee of the great director Ingmar Bergman, noted an item in a newspaper about casting for the project.

"I had a letter of recommendation from Bergman in my hand when I flew to Hollywood and looked up producers David Wolper and Stan Margulies. They granted me an audition and here I am," said Kristina.

"Kristina" stood alone among the numerous talented actresses interviewed," Margulies reveals, "and from Sweden, yet, the original's (Garbo) homeland."

Barry Bostwick will co-star as John Gilbert in this drama which traces Garbo and Gilbert's career from Garbo's arrival in Hollywood and subsequent rise to stardom.

The cast from 'The Silent Lovers' segment includes:

Greta Garbo	Kristina Wayborn
John Gilbert	Barry Bostwick
Maurice Stiller	Brian Keith
Irving Thalberg	John Rubenstein
Louis B. Mayer	Harold Gould
Lillian Gish	Mackenzie Phillips
