'Americans — black and white — should emulate people like Joe Louis. He knew America, its assests and its failures, and he confronted them with controlled fear and controlled violence.'

RYAN O'NEAL

'Joe Louis fought everybody and if they gave him a good bout, he fought 'em again. He fought for his country and he fought often. He stood for America.'

FRANK SINATRA

'Joe was never one to waste a punch or a word. When he threw the first, it was meaningful; when he uttered the latter, it counted for something.'
