Seattle, Send Us Some More Of Those Ladies!

By Rudi Jackson

How sweet it is to see out-of-town people come slowly to this side-o-town, such as Lady and Linda from sunny California. They had a swinging good time meeting soulful people as they lov-n-ly enjoyed viewing sights and sounds of people going for the gusto-N-life.

Making my beat I spied: 2 cute ladies climbing out of a rent-a-car, they had the fresh as a rose look of being from out-o-town. "Hi! Are you lost?" I asked. The reply was: "Kind-of, but we are looking for Love's Cafe." Visiting from Seattle, Washington were Ms Leatha Neal and her Sister, Helen Sanders Black...

Hye, all C.B.'ers in Las Vegas. Ms Neal has a C.B. handle... "Lady Tangeray"...Up in Seattle, say hello for ol' me...

Dan Curtis & Barbara, did you or did you not break-away for the weekend...HUH? I did, along with so many others. Johnny McGee took his mean-green racing machine up to St. George and it ran hot like that volcano up north, clean on out-o-the race (hang on in there, good-buddy).

Hats off to the folks at: Silver Wing Condo Travel. You brung us two very lovely ladies from Seattle, Washington...yes, lawd!

Over hot cups of coffee in the Soul Sisters Cafe I wuz told that Velvet Saleem did the broke-away from Vegas this side-o-town and spent a week of seven down and up through the coastal Hi-way #1 (in California), viewing the sights and getting his share of koda-chrome prints with his 110 films...He plans to make silk-screen prints of his hand-E-works and creations of what God has en-dowed to man. The gifts of nature, travel, knowledge...oh! and the $$$$$.

Hello to my good friends Roz and Lou Bland of San Bernar-dino, California, with whom I spent a warm week-end-er this past holiday. Has any one here seen John Davis? Lonnie Chaney, gas ain't so high that we can not see you on the Slipping-Strip of the W.S.O.T. (west-side of town). Homework: Define...The Gospel Tornado (right-on).

Wuz told that Herb Kelly, who minds the store at the West-Side Art Gallery, made plans to visit friends in big Dallas this past weekend. Herb's a retired school teacher and is deeply into the rich facts of life in this bitter earth...

Do a stop-by and spend a little time talking and walking thru the artistic knowledge and paintings...Y'all go by now!

Ipi Tombi, where are the guys and dolls? Tif-fanys-12 plans to honor the lovely dancers at their up-coming Fashion Revue on July 6th at Love's Cocktail Lounge, along with a famed boxer and gentleman(?).

The time comes to lionize the opening of Ruben's Westside Story-added renewal to this community...

We need more lights winking and blinking on the buildings. WE HAVE GOT TO STOP RUNNING AGAINST THE WIND AND DEMAND BETTER THINGS FOR OUR GOOD LIFE THAT SO MANY ARE NOT ENJOYING.

Hats off to the staff at Hi-View Market. Good U-R OPEN 24 hrs for the nite folks in the community to SHOP-AROUND - THE-CLOCK!

It will soon be International Festival Time, so make plans to attend and see the works of people from so many nations develop before your minds' eyes.

HATE IS AN ELEMENT OF WAR. Empty bottles and cans look like dead bodies after the battle-cry. Hats off to Bro. McDuffie who donates his time to clean up the litter of the drinkers on the streets of our beat.

I understand the paint brushes may be slapping up-side some more buildings on Jackson St. and others, due to URBAN UP-LIFTING. CAN I GET A WITNESS? REMEMBER HOW THEY WHITE-WASHED THE HOUSES WITH QUICK-LIME (BACK) DOWN HOME...I DO!...JUST HOPE IT DON'T COME A GOOD HARD RAIN...THANK GOD FOR LUCITE/PAINT!

(Angel-dust is turning off a whole lots of folks lights, as cars crash into lite-poles in and around our side-o-town. Some will and some won't ever learn to shun drugs in the system of the body.)

The D-Jays at K.V.O.V. were sure playing 'do enjoy misty music' for the folks of Vegas last week: as Lady and Linda moved about the city in their limozene/mobil. Hats off to Eli Curtis & Staff who fix flats in the heart of our community.

The lites looked good last nite, winking and blinking. We thought it was a carnival in motion in THE GOLDEN

Look At Me

The final 'Look At Me' program Saturday, June 7 at 7:00 p.m. on TV-10, reviews the joys, frustrations and anxieties that most parents face during their children's growing years.

"Juggling all your responsibilities," Donahue says, "as a worker, spouse, parent, son or daughter yourself is a constant challenge - especially as your children grow and need you in different ways."

In this program Donahue summarizes the importance of a parent's role in their child's life and retraces the various stages in a young child's development. Most importantly, 'Look At Me' focuses on what the job of raising children means to a father or mother, as a parent and as a person.

WEST SHOPPING CENTER.

The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. paid tribute to its distinguished founders on last Sunday by first attending worship service at Zion Methodist Church and later in the evening the Basileus of the Sorority, Mrs. Jessica Perkins, held a short busin ess meeting at her home, followed by the welcoming of prospective candidates for membership. Awards of Merit were presented to several members and a delectable Bar-B.Q. dinner was served on the patio of the gracious hostess.

Enjoyed meeting Mrs. Bolden, the lovely mom of Ada Hunn, who is visiting our city from Mile/High Denver...Ada the dinner was UMMMM-mmmmmGOOD! School is out in a few days. WATCH OUT FOR THE CHILDREN! Monamodi.

State Vocational Director, Courtney Rille, left, recently presented a trophy to one of the DECA (Distributive Education Clubs Of America) Students of the Year, Lezlie T. Funchess of Bonanza High School, right. Winners were chosen on the basis of a manual they prepared showing their DECA projects for the year, personal recommendations and an interview before the three judges. Lezlie plans to attend the national conference scheduled for June in Miami, Florida. A member of DECA for 2 years and recent Governor at the Nevada Boys State Camp, he plans to pursue a college degree in business.
