Blacks Lack Street Identity On Westside

What's in a street name? Whatever it is, it has found a way in the naming of streets throughout Las Vegas.

North Las Vegas, Henderson Boulder City and the remainder of Clark County. Unfortunately, there's one thing generally missing...the naming of streets after famous black leaders.

One can find street names such as Lamb Boulevard, West Tam O'Shanter, McCarran Blvd., Gragson Avenue, Neil Armstrong Street, Alan Shepherd Street, Skywalker Avenue, Washington Avenue, Vandenberg Drive, Kenobi Avenue, Levy Lane, Van Buren Avenue, Nellis Blvd., Cortez Court, Rickenbacker Road, Sawyer Avenue, and hundreds of others.

In the Las Vegas area, we find a few streets that identify with blacks including Duke Ellington Way, Tuskegee Street, Lincoln Road, (Rev. I.W.) Wilson Avenue, (Rev. J. C.) Simmons Street and (Rev. V.C.L.) Coleman Avenue.

If you go up "D" Street in Las Vegas Westside, you'll learn the name of every President in order from Washington to Van Buren-Big Deal. Obviously, there are no black presidents listed.

Streets we don't see anywhere are: Martin Luther King Parkway, Marcus Garvey Avenue, Mary Bethune Street, Joe Louis Circle, Mabel Hoggard, North; Paul Robeson Road, Marion Anderson Way, Jessie Owens Drive, Jackie Robinson Court, Roy Wilkins Lane, Booker T. Washington Place, George Washington Carver Blvd., Ralph Bunche, West and Roots Times Square.

When are we going to get that act together?
