CETA Official Named Deputy City Manager

Dr. Ernest E. Bryant, 42, director of the Las Vegas-Clark County CETA Consortium has accepted the position of deputy city manager, City Manager Russ Dorn announced. Bryant, former combat pilot, is expected to start this new $36,500 position July 14.

This appointment will make him the highest ranking black ever to serve in city government.

He will be second in power only to Dorn and will supervise departments of financial management, personnel, and employee relations, general services, municipal court, management information services, funds coordination and the city clerk's office.

From 1977 to 1978, Bryant served as associate superintendent of the Nevada Department of Education. He headed the field services, fiscal services and technical services divisions.

He received his doctorate in occupational education from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill., where he also received his bachelor's and masters degrees.
