NORWOOD

Norwood Files For Office

Former Las Vegas Municipal Court Judge Walter V. Norwood has filed for election to the office of the Justice of the Peace for Las Vegas Township.

Norwood, 33, a practicing Clark County Attorney filed for Seat number 4, which is being vacated by Judge Miriam Shearing, who is seeking a District Court position.

Stephens Is Candidate For Assembly

Richard Stephens, a North Las Vegas Democrat, has filed for candidacy in Assembly District 18.

Stephens, 27, will face incumbent Tom Hickey in the September Democratic primary. A 6 year resident of the city, Stephens works as a driver for the Clark County Sanitation District.

He said the most important issues of the campaign include improvements in public transportation, recreation, education and protection of the rights of mobile home and apartment tenants.

Stephens said he endorsed the MX missile system as necessary for the nation's defense, endorsed the Equal Rights Amendment, and opposed the Sagebrush Rebellion. At present, he is un-decided on the Question 6 issue.

hence his absence from the trip.

Also brightening up the trip were the dynamic duo Genuieve Andrade and Diane Fontes, brain trust of D. & G. Associates. There was also lovely Lena Todd and Ruth Cooper with whom the writer enjoyed an instant rapport, and please let us not forget E.O.B.'s Carita Harbert who swam and discoed her heart out and who made many green with envy as she made plans with vivacious Martha Jordan for their August trip to Greece and cruise of the Greek islands. Completing the list of guests were Olivia Williams and sister, winsome Sandra Williams. (Olivia is the wife of building contractor Evan Williams, President of Dalton Properties and the elegant, super-efficient, knowledgeable lady is considered one of the prime reasons for the fabulous success Dalton Properties enjoys) — And then, there was the eb-bulient presence of the writer's "roomie," Gwen Weekes Rahner who brought along a tape deck with a passel of "Oldies but Goodies" which afforded her exhausted friend the pleasure of dropping off every night to the incomparable sounds of Dinah Washington and such.
