Learning To Pray When Others Pray

By Bishop

E. V. Webb, Jr.

Vacation Bible School is a boy and girl, man and woman, learning to pray when others pray. It is a time — the first time — some pupils learn that God loves them; it is the first time a youngster hears the name of Jesus spoken reverently.

Vacation Bible School is our Church planning for months, how it can serve its youth. It is preparation meetings, orders for supplies (when you hope there will be enough), pleas for teachers to give cheerfully of their time, without pay.

It is an opportunity during the year when parents see for themselves that people are concerned enough about the eternal destiny of their boys and girls, to give hours of effort to teach them to know and to love the sweetest name in any language — Jesus. It is hope — a hope that the days spent in Vacation Bible School may be a turning point for a Paul, a

Timothy, a Simon Peter, or an Alexander Campbell disguised in blue jeans and a tee shirt.

The theme for this year's Vacation Bible School was "JESUS, I BELIEVE IN YOU." Our theme text was "These are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that, believing, ye might have life through His name." John 20:31

Our goals for this year were: (1) The student will know that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; (2) the student will believe that Jesus has all power in heaven and in earth; and (3) the student will respond to Jesus, God's wonderful Son.

Each student was taught about Jesus' power through such Bible narratives as changing water to wine, transfiguration of Jesus, healing the man born blind, raising Lazarus from the dead, and the ascension of Jesus.

Pentacostal Temple Church of God In Christ would like to thank you for sending your child to Vacation Bible School. We had approximately 160 pupils. Each day was exciting with crafts and arts, recreation, music appreciation and refreshments.

The highlights were our fulfilled field trip to Burger King via bus and our Commencement Exercise on Wednesday.

Awards were given to the staff and director. Our Middlers received the Race Into Space Contest Award with better than 2,000 points. $1.00 Certificates to McDonalds were given to those 40 students.
