The goal of the Fire Safety Education and Home Inspection program is to:

Reduce the incidence of fire in the neighborhood strategy area I and II. To meet this goal, the program will hire and train five senior citizens from NSA I and II. The training will consist of 80 hours of instruction on home fire safety to obtain fire certification prior to August 1980 starting date.

Inspect 300 homes in NSA areas I and II for fire code violations during the program year.

Provide one fire safety instruction session per week for NSA I and II residents.

Make 10 referrals per month to various homeowners assistance programs such as developmental program division concerning potential housing rehabilitation, home weatherization, etc.
