Bolden Named Sports Editor

Lee A. Bolden, 32, former Sports Correspondent with the Las Vegas Sun, has been appointed Sports Editor with the Las Vegas Sentinel, Betty Brown, Publisher and Editor announced recently.

Bolden, a resident in the Las Vegas area for 22 years is a graduate of Las Vegas High School and selected by the class of 1966 as "The Most Likely To Succeed."

As a student at Las Vegas High, Bolden was heavily involved in athletic activities. He lettered in baseball, basketball and football.

Some of his high school accomplishments included selection as the High School All-

American quarterback, second team; All-City quarterback; All-State quarterback; was on the 1966 State Championship basketball team and selected by his teammates as the "Most Valuable Player" on the football team in his senior year. He served as captain of the 1966 football team.

He attended Snow College, Ephraim, Utah and is currently studying with the Writers' Institute of America, Mamaroneck, New York.

As Sports Editor in the SENTINEL's new feature addition, THE SPORTS BOARD, Bolden will bring the first sports magazine section of its kind in the nation's black news publications.
