

Activities At Doolittle Center

The 5th Annual Over 30 BASKETBALL LEAGUE has two games every Tues. & Thurs. at 6:30 and 8:15 p.m. The league sponsor is Wimpy's Drive-In.

Participation is strongly encouraged. Come and see former university stars and ex-pros. You'll have the time of your life! Energetic Bobby McRoy, Sr. Recreation Leader, is in charge of this activity.

Mr. McRoy would also like for people to sign up for the Weight Lifting Club. Members can participate anytime — non-members from 6:00-8:30 only, Tues. -Thurs., starting Dec. 3, 1980.

Andrew Love, noted Black Belt Karate instructor, will conduct classes for men and women every Tues., Thurs., and Sat. Mr. Love is also in charge of the Chess Club. All interested persons may contact him at the center.

Tactful Wendell

Williams, recreation leader, will announce Doolittle's Pool Tournament. If anybody would like to participate, contact Mr. Williams at the center.

MUSIC

Richelle Robinson, graduate of the Detroit Conservatory of Music and new Las Vegas resident, will teach piano to persons of all ages — beginners and advanced.

Students will play on annual recitals that are usually given at Convention Center. Classes are Friday, 9:00 a.m.-9:30 p.m. Other days will have to be discussed with Ms. Robinson.

MISCELLANEOUS

Youth cooking classes will be every Saturday from 2:00-5:00 p.m.

*For further information contact Mr. Clyde Dawson, center supervisor at 386-6374.

CHRISTOPHER & JENNIFER DIGGS

Christopher Brooks: An Incredible Child

By now you've heard of the TV show "That's Incredible" — a show that depicts almost the impossible. Well, the SENTINEL ran across an incredible 1 year old boy over the weekend who'll blow your mind.

Make no mistake about it, Christopher Brooks, the great-nephew of School Trustee Virginia Brooks Brewster, is incredible.

Christopher has an incredible memory and is able to identify just about everyone in his neighborhood. He lives in the area of Doolittle Avenue and "H" Street. He is able to call them on a first-name basis.

The SENTINEL took a candid shot of Christopher and when it was shown to him, he responded "That's terrible... real terrible."

Christopher Brooks, the son of Deborah Brooks, is "incredible."
