them in achieving access to capital, technical expertise and managerial depth.

National policy should also place new stress on assisting proven firms, building on strengths through involving corporate and private sector participation, expanded minority procurement programs, and financing aids.

Government and corporate strategies to preserve struggling minority firms during the downturn are essential.

JUDGE GUY INVITES STUDENTS TO SIT ON BENCH — Eighth Judicial District Court Judge, Addelior D. Guy, has invited Clark County high school seniors to sit at the bench with him twice each month through the 1980-81 school year. Students are selected by teachers and principals. Shown with Judge Guy is Pledger Solomon of Basic High School, the first of many local students to enjoy this educational experience.

SULLIVAN SPEAKER

Dr. Leon H. Sullivan, Founder and Chairman of the National Board of directors of the Opportunities Industrial Centers, will be the guest speaker at the First Business and Industry Dinner at the Imperial Palace on Friday, Oct. 17.

Dr. Sullivan is also pastor of the Zion Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

The central theme for the awards program will be "Self-Help for Las Vegas."

In 1964 he founded the OIC, a program sponsoring training and retraining on a massive scale; the first program of its kind in the United States. This program is now operating in more than 125 cities in the United States and is established in Nigeria, Ghana, Ethiopia and Kenya.

Since its beginning OIC has trained more than 300,000 men and women and more than 200,000 have been placed in gainful employment earning approximately three billion dollars a year in annual income.

In 1963, Rev. Sullivan was cited by Life Magazine as one of the 100 Outstanding Young Adults in the United States.

The program sponsored by the Las Vegas OIC will begin with no-host cocktails at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m.
