Effective Power Of Kindness

By Bishop E.N. Webb, Jr.

"A soft answer turns away wrath." Proverbs 15:1

The effective power of kindness and gentleness seems to be either lost or forgotten in our modern age. Listen to some conversations during the course of one day. How loud and bombastic they become, punctuated with curse words! However, just as the loud blasts of a thundering cannon settle few differences, so the loud cannonading of words produces little good at best.

BISHOP WEBB

Remember: "A soft answer turns away wrath." Some years ago a group of Sunday school teachers was discussing how to maintain discipline in their classes. All the teachers admitted that they had difficulties in maintaining discipline. To help one another, they asserted what they did in certain situations. One teacher who was known to have no discipline problems, remained quiet. Finally she was asked, "How do you maintain the discipline in your class?" With a broad smile she replied, "I kill them with kindness." It was by divine love that Jesus gave His life and thus overcame sin and evil. "By grace you have been saved," says Paul. Moved by the love of Christ for us, may we display love and kindness in our dealings with others.

Lord Jesus, keep me mindful of Your grace and mercy in pardoning my sins. By Your Spirit enable me to be kind, humble and forgiving.
