NORTH LAS VEGAS HAPPENINGS

Hot air balloons will float through the skies in Southern Nevada when the North Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce launches the fourth annual North Las Vegas Fairshow, A Midway to the Clouds on October 24, 25 and 26, at the Cheyenne campus of Clark Co. Community College.

The annual community event is held to provide a non-profit community affair for people of all ages and to promote a good relationship between the community and the businesses in the area.

Children, teens and young adults can make their Cinderella dreams come true at the North Las Vegas Cindergirl Pageant to be held October 18 at the Rancho High School Little Theatre.

Competition is in three age groups, three to six years old, seven to nine, ten to twelve and thirteen to seventeen.

Contests galore are scheduled for the fourth annual N.L.V. Fairshow, October 24, 25, 26 to be held at the Cheyenne campus of Clark County Community College.

Competition and contests for everyone in various areas including sports such as the Mayors Softball Tournament, horseshoe pitching, tobacco spitting, greased pole climbing, a rain gutter regatta and for indoor sports, seniors bingo.

Competition for titles includes the Miss North Las Vegas Scholarship pageant with the winner to represent the area for the Miss Nevada title at Reno, the Miss Cinderella pageant for ages three to seventeen, Prince and Princess and the hilarious contest for the men, the Mr. Macho contest where the men get the opportunity to flex their muscles or lack of them.

Contest in other areas include cake decorating, Hallowe'en costumes and dance.
