vices, Youth, Training and Employment; Education Services and other programs which deal with Community Anti-Crime, Foster Grandparents, Senior Opportunities and the Community Food Bank.

The SENTINEL in some of its future issues will be dealing more specifically with the individual programs and services.

Hoggard sums the overall objective adequately: "As we continue to grow as a voice and presence in this community on behalf of the economically, socially and politically deprived, we sincerely solicit the on-going support of every political entity, agency and individual."
