

State Route 225 Restricted

State Route 225, (formerly designated State Route 51), between Elko, Nevada and the Idaho border, will be restricted to legal loads only. Engineering inspections conducted by the Nevada Department of Transportation disclosed severe travel way damage to this route.

Effective immediately, and until further notice by the Department, a legal overall weight of 80,000 lbs. gross is maximum. Axle weights shall be legal on single axle not to exceed 20,000 lbs., and tandem axles not exceeding 34,000 lbs., a further restriction of 70 feet in overall length will be imposed.

The Nevada Highway Patrol and Motor Carrier Divisions, have been notified of this restriction.

Scouts Plan Halloween Dance

The Economic Opportunity Board's Youth Program and their Troop 988 of the Boy Scouts of America planned a Halloween recruitment disco dance at A.D. Guy Recreation Center, on Thursday, October 30, from 6 p.m. until 9 p.m. All boys who wish to sign up for scouting with a SUPER troop should bring their date, bring their parents (to complete the forms) and be ready for an evening of true fun.

Refreshments and a cake walk, fortune telling, and the best music in the world will make you glad you came. Boys from third grade to 18 years old should "check this out."

Everyone should wear their Halloween costumes (except scouts) we'll be looking for you.

A.D. Guy Center is located at the corner of Washington and Highland. For further information, call 647-2759 and ask for Geraldine.

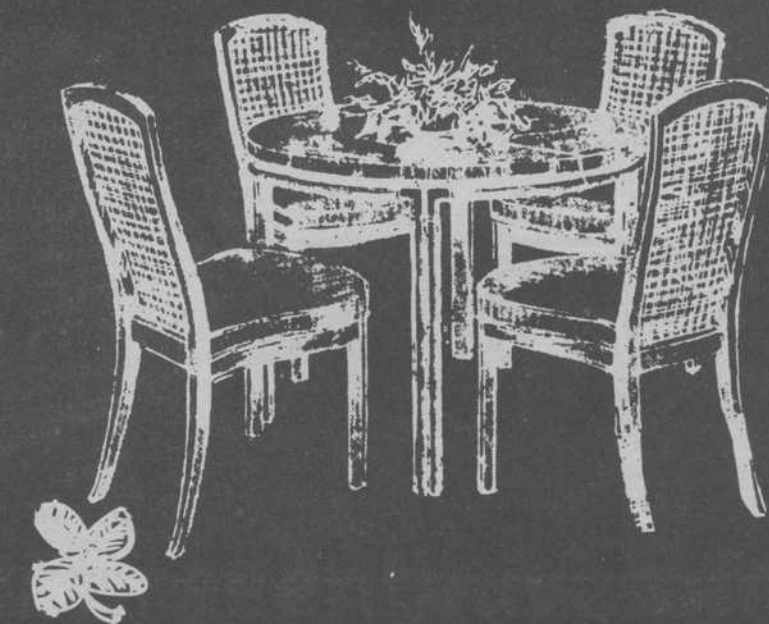

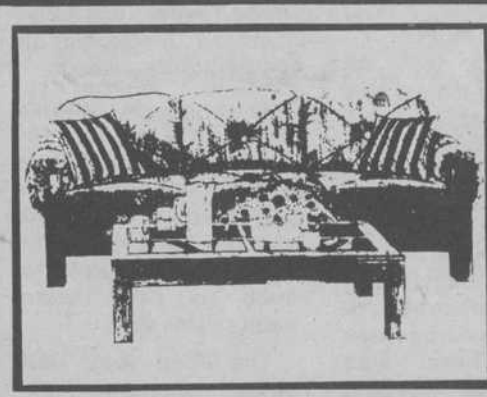

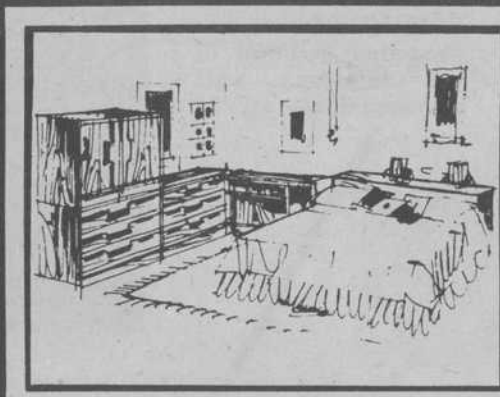

HOMECOMING QUEEN — Crystal Brown, a Las Vegas High School senior, has been selected Homecoming Queen for the 1980-81 school year. A seven year resident, she attended Bridger and Martin Junior High Schools.
