A Word Through Bishop E. N. Webb:

BISHOP WEBB

The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, "God, I thank Thee that I am not like other men." Luke 18:11, Luke 18:9-14, Psalm 10.

Pride is one of the seven deadly sins. In the Pharisee we witness the prideful practice of taking other people in to one's hands and showing them to God in the light of ourselves. Comparing ourselves with others is a wrongful procedure. The only right method is comparing ourselves with God: "You, therefore, must be perfect, as your Father is perfect." Belittling others reflects the proud practice of exalting ourselves.

PORTRAIT OF A PROUD MAN

In this parable Christ is showing the Pharisees two photographs: (1) What they were and (2) What they ought to be. The Pharisee had come to the temple to make an appearance. The tax collector had come to make a request. The one talked to himself ("prayed thus with himself") and the other humbly petitioned God ("God be merciful to me, a sinner"). The Pharisee boasted, the tax collector, with downcast eyes, sighed a confession.

Christ measured both of them. The proud Pharisee was to be humbled, abased, to have his pride punctured. The tax collector, who had emptied himself, was filled with God's peace. He was accepted, lifted up and declared just by God.

Lord, have mercy on us humble sinners and wash us white in Your precious blood.
