Clark County School District

ANNUAL HUMAN RELATIONS FORUM

The Annual Human Relations Forum, sponsored by Clark County School District's Human Relations Department and Pupil Personnel Services, will take place at the Las Vegas Convention Center, Thursday, Nov. 13. All sessions will be held in the South Hall. Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m.

The Forum is designed to bring together a cross section of high school students with contrasting social, economic and educational backgrounds. The purpose of the discussions is to exchange experiences and recognize problems that may be developing within the schools and the community.

This constructive dialogue will serve as a useful motivator, helping students identify and resolve problems.

Topics to be discussed are; 1. Are You Listening To Me? The objective of this topic is to develop communication skills, designed to facilitate racial harmony. 2. Who's Who In The Group? This topic will encourage peer relations and participation of races in school activities.

Many outstanding personalities will participate in the Forum. Dr. James Lyman, President Board of School Trustees, will cordially welcome all in attendance. Explanation of Topics by Gilbert Garcia Project Manager of STRIDE (Service Training and Research In Desegregation Education) Los Angeles California;

Rosemary Clarke, President State Board Of Education Nevada; Roosevelt Fitzgerald, Director of Ethnic Studies UNLV; June Whitley, Board of Regents UNLV; Phil Butler, Juvenile Court Services; Robert Rivas, Director of CET; Sgt. Wilbur Jackson, Metro

Police Juvenile Department and many more local school Administrators, Principals and Teachers will take part. Virginia Brewster, member of the Clark County School Board of Trustees, will serve as Mistress of ceremonies.

Prior to the keynote speech, four students will have an opportunity to give an overview and summary of topics discussed. This portion of the program have always generated enthusiasm and is one of the highlights of the Forum.

Lewis Bundy, Project STRIDE, Los Angeles California, will deliver the keynote address.
