A Word Through Bishop E. N. Webb:

BISHOP WEBB

Christ will be honored...whether by life or by death. For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Philippians 1:20-21; II Corth. 5:16-21; Psalm 80.

LIVING FOR CHRIST

Many times we are encouraged to set some worthwhile goals for our lives. Words like "independence" "persistence" "will power" and "enthusiasm" are set before us as indicating life styles, which make life successful.

While many of these might indeed exemplify the good old "American way" the most important of all ingredient is missing. Apostle Paul reminds us of a truth that needs to underline our life, that is the very core of life itself. Paul says very simply, "For me to live is Christ."

That could mean a lot of exciting things in our lives. Paul opens the concept even further when he says, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation." (II Corth. 5:17). Again, "He died for us all, that those who live might live no longer for themselves but for Christ who for thier sake died and was raised." (II Corth. 5:15).

This puts our life into a whole new perspective. What we do, we do for Him. That's really living!

Let us list some things that we do as evidence to the fact that we are living in Him and for Him rather than for ourselves.
