Clark County School District

Human Relations Day - Nellis A.F.B.

The Human Relations Office and Pupil Personnel Services Clark County School District, in conjunction with Nellis Air Force Base's

Social Service Department, will present Human Relations Day at Nellis. The two-day workshop will be held November 25-26. Each school will send at least 8 students with equal ethnic representation.

The workshop is designed to increase the effectiveness of students and assist in dealing with contemporary issues.

A film "The Eye Of The Storm" will be shown. In addition topics on drugs and related subjects will be discussed. In order that students feel comfortable taking part in the discussions group sessions will be held.

Sixth Grade Centers students will be participating in the activity on Tuesday, November 25. The Jr. High Schools will be attending Wednesday, November 26.

Human Relations Sponsors and Human Relations workers will chaperon on the buses and at the Air Force Base.

The activity will be held during regular school hours. All students will return to school prior to the end of the school day.

Anti Smoke Class

The Community Services department of Clark County Community College is offering a program designed to motivate and assist smokers in their struggle to "kick the habit."

The "Stop Smoking Seminar" will be led by Audrey Litman, a 25 year smoker who has permanently kicked the habit, starting November 17-21 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Litman plans to utilize lectures, counseling, support groups, relaxation techniques and film presentations during the course of the seminar.

The "Stop Smoking" registration, orientation and seminar will be held at the Community Baptist Church located on Cheyenne Ave. adjacent to the college campus.

For further information on registration and fees, contact Community Services at 643-6060 ext 271.
