A Word Through Bishop E. N. Webb:

BISHOP WEBB

"Do not be conformed to this world." Romans 12:2; Ephesians 4:17-24; Psalm 119:113-120.

The Apostle Paul throughout his epistles stresses the fact that we should lead lives with a capital "L." By this he means: Leave the old life, live the new life, look for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Yes, leave the old conformity to the world! In Ephesians 4:22 he says, "Put off the old nature which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt with deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new nature created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness."

Is this not reasonable? Since Christ suffered and died for us and paid the penalty of our sins, surely by His love we should repent of our sins. The prodigal son was truly sorry for his sinful life. When he came back to his father, his smell of pigsty clothes were put off and thrown away, and he was arrayed in new garments. So our heavenly Father will do for us through the Gospel. By His help we can live the new life and look forward to the second coming of Christ in His glory.

Paul lived by this power, for he said, "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is revealed in us."

Oh! I long for a slower walk with Thee, dear Lord.
