Video Artists Set Exhibition At Library

For the first time in Las Vegas there will be an exhibition of artists who use video as a new art medium, on Saturday, November 22nd, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the West Las Vegas Library, 1402 No. "D" Street, and on Saturday, November 29th, from 12 noon to 5 p.m. at the Flamingo Library, 1401 E. Flamingo Rd. Video Art Viewings were designed to acquaint the community with this exciting new art form and is free to the public. These events were supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts through the Nevada State Council on the Arts (Marlene Franks, Project Director).

This one-time only series of video tapes, created by nationally recognized artists from various disciplines, is perhaps the largest grouping of video works ever exhibited. These programs offer an exciting alternative to commercial television programming and the ar-
