Until he met Duran in Montreal, the 24 year old Sugar Ray was undefeated in 27 fights. Unlike Duran, Leonard is a product of the amateurs and his phenomenal rise to glory was climaxed by the Gold Medal in Montreal. A superb boxer, with astounding speed of hand and foot, Leonard can also punch. He wastes few punches and is an astute ring tactician. Guided by men like Janks Morton and the sage Angelo Dundee, Leonard moved steadily up the welter-weight ladder. He got his chance at the title when he faced Wilfred Benitez, also at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas on November 30, 1979. He won by a technical knockout in the 15th round. In his only defense prior to Duran, he demolished Davey "Boy" Green, of England, in four rounds in Landover, Md., on March 31st, of this year.

Leonard has won 27 of his 28 fights, with 18 knockouts.

This is a fight of extremely contrasting styles as well as physical makeup. Leonard is taller, with a three inch reach advantage. Leonard is wiry, angular — Duran is solid, compact. The first fight, however, proved that all those factors are meaningless between them. It remains the highly-talented boxer puncher with awesome speed, against the relentless animal power of the ever-hungry street fighter with a jaw of granite, hands of stone and the urge to destroy.

Tickets for the live exclusive Las Vegas broadcast of this event are $20 and $25 at Caesars Palace.

The hotel will feature four Eidophor cameras, each weighing in excess of 2,000 lbs, brought in from Los Angeles especially for this event to ensure highest-possible quality projection.

Caesars Palace is accepting wagers on the Duran-Leonard fight only at it's unique new Sports Book.
