A Word Through Bishop E. N. Webb:

BISHOP WEBB

...And peace (to you) from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 1:2; John 14:25-31; Psalm 4.

An artist was once commissioned to put on canvas his impressions of peace and its meaning. After a lot of effort he painted a picture of a bird safely nestled on its nest amid the raging winds of a mighty storm.

GOD GIVES US PEACE

The peace of God can be likened unto that. We praise Him that he has given us His peace in Christ Jesus. Because of our sins, we were separated from Him. A great warfare against God existed in our lives. We were totally without hope, but now and forever.

In Jesus there is the declaration that the hostilities between God and man have come to an end. Jesus not only abridged the gap that we had created by our sinfulness — He is the Bridge, the Mediator. The warfare is over. In Him we have peace with God.

The good news is also that while the storms of life may be raging all around us we, like the bird, are safely nestled in the everlasting arms of Him who created that peace in the first place. Our Lord promises us that He will never leave us or let us go. Isn't that a great thought for this day?
