Senior Day Care Center

Daytime care to Seniors will be provided in an effort to prevent or delay institutionalization. Seniors will receive social, nutritional, and recreational activities of therapeutic value. The center will be open five days a week, providing care to Seniors ten hours a day, from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., serving approximately 20 Seniors daily. Nutritional needs of participants will be met with balanced lunches and snacks, beverages will be provided throughout the day including milk and vitamin fortified juices. Social activities will be encouraged by the staff. Recreational activities will include table top games, sewing, needlework, music appreciation, arts and crafts, and social functions will provide entertainment, social skills, and an easing of feelings of isolation. Recreational therapy will include active and passive activities. Part-time service of a Mental Health Counselor will be available to Counsel Seniors and their families. Educational activities will be conducted in the areas of Legal Rights, consumer protection, health, government benefits and other expressed interests.

The Center will be located at the First Christian Church, Rancho Road and West Mesquite. Applications will be accepted from October 15, through November 15, 1980, at 330 West Washington Ave., Suite 9. For more information call 646-1220.

Darcus New Talent

Have you had the pleasure of seeing Darcus? She and her newly formed combo took the fancy of the folk at the Gallery Lounge of Atlantic City's newest Hotel-Casino, the Brighton, recently. The response to them was overwhelming.

The attractive singer, who was born in Kansas City, Missouri, is "a delightful combination of vitality and charisma" and has a voice that knows no limitations with its range and versatility.

Darcus has appeared in such magazines as Cashbox, Billboard and Record World and on such television shows as House Calls, Dimensions in Black and Soul Beat.

In 1978 she recorded an album produced by Phil Richard for RCA entitled "Darcus."

She has caught the eye of such entertainers as Herb Mills of the Mills Brothers and it is not unusual to see Jack Jones, Jerry Van Dyke and many other celebrities watching her perform. Darcus is destined to be a star.

BUSINESS WORKSHOP

Opening a new business in today's market requires knowledge in advertising, accounting, insurance, legal matters, finance and organization and planning before opening the doors.

The United States Government Small Business Administration and Clark County Community College are co-sponsoring a Pre-Business Workshop at the Cheyenne campus December 9, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Professional representatives from financial institutions, law offices and related firms will present workshops entitled: Business Plan; How to Deal with Your Banker; Purchasing and Customer Relations; Keeping Proper Records to Save Money; Insurance Needs; Legal Aspects for Starting a Business; How SBA Can Help, and Individual Counseling.

The workshop is limited to the first forty people who enroll. For further information and a registration form, contact CCCC 643-6060 Extension 268.
