TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

Al Brown, Coordinator Human Relations

"EVERY GIFT, THOUGH IT BE SMALL, IS IN REALITY GREAT IF GIVEN WITH AFFECTION."

This time of the year has always been intriguing. Christmas will never lose its fascination. Not only does the holiday captivate children but men and women as well.

Already there are evidences of the coming holiday season, principally, of course, in the commercial realm as decorations go up, advertisements feature holly and poinsettias and people are beginning to discuss their Christmas plans. This is the season of great tender thoughtfulness for others. When our hearts leap in eagerness to make some return for the unspeakable gift that is extended to us, when the wise art of giving of ourselves wisely and is bravely practiced, we find that this is indeed the spirit of Christmas.

Prior to the holiday vacation, these jubilant students will be rendering a Christmas program for Senior Citizens at some of the local Senior Citizens Centers. These students in their art classes made one hundred and fifty personalized Christmas cards exclusively for the senior citizens at the EOB Senior Citizen Center and the Charleston Residential Hotel. This is an added attraction, which will bring a ray of sunshine into the hearts of the Senior Citizens, as they realize that they are by no means forgotten.

When the unfortunate the lonely and wounded are remembered first, this in addition is the yule time spirit and helps us to find the true joy of the meaning of Christmas.

PEDIATRIC LUNG DAY

Mayor William H. Briare, Mayor of the City of Las Vegas, has declared Saturday, December 13, as PEDIATRIC LUNG DAY.

Sponsored by the American Lung Association of Nevada, Pediatric Lung Day will be celebrated with two events.

The morning event will be a 15 mile WALK-A-THON. Honorary Chairperson is Former Governor Mike O'Callaghan.
