A Word Through Bishop E. N. Webb:

BISHOP WEBB

GOD ISN'T FINISHED WITH ME YET

We see ourselves as persons who do not act or react the way we would like. Fits of temper, hasty words, suspicious, gnawing doubts — all find their way into our hearts and minds. They evidence themselves in our daily lives. All of this can indeed be very depressing. We know we are not what shall become, but we thank God for what He has done in us.

as He is. Then, finally, we shall be the completed product.

Advent is a good time to praise Him for His work in us. It is also a good time to repent of our own poor efforts at becoming this finished product. We see at Christmas how He came to give His life for us so we could see the finished work of our heavenly Father.

So please be patient with me. God is not finished with me yet. For when He gets through with me, I shall come forth as pure gold.

The same with you!

"I am sure that He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." Phillipians 1:6; Romans 12:1-8; Psalm 51

When we take a good look at ourselves, we probably are often disappointed in what we lives. All of this can indeed be very depressing.

How good it is to know that God has not given

We rejoice in the fact that His power continues to work in us, to build us up until the Day of the Lord Jesus when we shall see and know Him

ACCUSER!

...ask yourself, am I one?

By Rev. Charles Wyatt

DIABOLOS (Greek Word), an accuser, is used 34 times as a title of Satan, "The Devil" (The English word is derived from the Greek) once of Judas, John 6:70, who in his opposition to God, acted the part of the Devil. Apart from John 6:70, men are never spoken of as Devils.

men led Jesus out to death after more men had been called as accusers in a mock trial.

THINK harder: With 120 true believers, Christ was without sin. But in the eyes of all other people, Christ Jesus was only a political criminal, whom they accused of law breaking. The accusers all must have thought the laws of men more important than the laws of God, the Father of all living.

The accusers were in opposition to God and His laws, but they may not have realized it, as God had already known, until after the death of Jesus.

THINK: Jesus died on the cross, but he said that before this in John 19:11, "Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above. Therefore, he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin." Did he mean his accusers? Was Judas the only (Diabolos) accuser?

Who are you? Do you serve God by accusing your fellow mankind brethren?

Jesus died on the cross, but God the Father arose Christ from the tomb on the 3rd day. His accusers thought the tomb would be his prison of death, but God proved this was in opposition of His will.

THINK hard: Diabolos the accuser, Judas, went to death, not to life, but Christ Jesus was not left in death to rot. Jesus was not an accuser causing men to be put in prison or to death!

Are you a Christ-like Christian, or are you a modern day Pharisee, or

It is always to be distinguished from Daimon, a Demon. It is found three times: I Tim. 3:11; II Tim. 3:3 and Tit. 2:3, of false accusers, slanderers.

THINK: Diabolos; an accuser, who led men to arrest Jesus and the men put Jesus in prison. Then
