A Word Through Bishop E. N. Webb:

BISHOP WEBB

When the time had fully come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, to redeem those who were under the Law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. Gal.

WHAT DO YOU WANT FOR CHRISTMAS?

4:4-5, 1 Peter 1:6-13. Psalm 1.

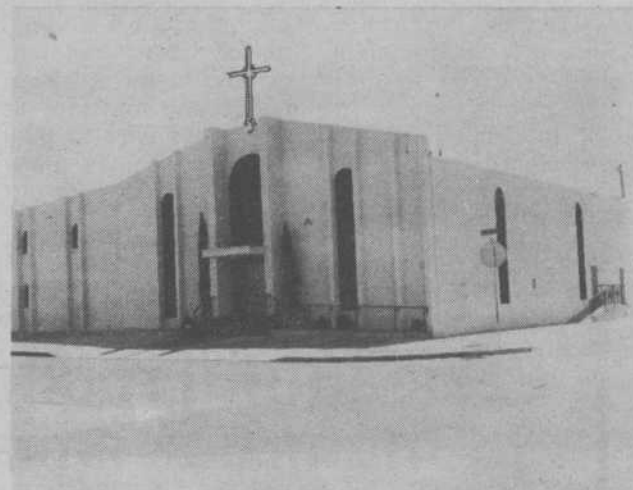

The volume of business in these pre-Christmas weeks seems to suggest that people want a great deal for Christmas. Many will complain of money shortage due to the economical recession, but will attempt to spread Christmas joy, because deep down in their hearts most people want something beyond material gifts. They want something good for the members of their families.

What person, having a loved one being held hostage in a foreign land, wouldn't gladly forego all the gifts, if only that loved one could be at home for Christmas? If someone is critically ill in the hospital, don't those at home desire, more than anything else, that their loved one get well? Wouldn't all of us like to see the jobless victims of the MGM disaster have a lovely Christmas?

Whatever serves the well-being of a person is precious. Consider, then, what great love and mercy God revealed to us when He sent His only Son, Jesus Christ, into a sinful world to be our Savior. He came as a baby, born in poverty, wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a cattle shed. By all outward appearances there was little to impress the people for whom He came. Yet this special Child embodies the fullness of God.
