'LET ME OFF UPTOWN' OPENS AT TROP

"Let Me Off Uptown," a new musical revue paying tribute to the great jazz musicians of the 1920s through the 50s, opens in the Cabaret, Tropicana Hotel May 22. The show will open with a celebrated cast including Ausserita Mathis, a singer whose talent has taken her around the world including many television engagements. The show also stars Norma Miller, whose past experience includes ten years with Redd Foxx on TV's Sanford and Son.

TRIBUTE - Ausserita Mathis (left) and Norma Miller star in the Tropicana Hotel's new lounge show, "Let Me Off Uptown," a musical tribute to the jazz musicians of the 1920s through 1950s. The show opens in the Cabaret May 22.

The new revue is produced and directed by Lenny and Mickie Martin, and staged by Jerry Jackson.
