Love Is Base Principle

BISHOP WEBB

Jesus asked the question, "Peter do you love me?" (St. John 21:15) Apparently Jesus was concerned about those who loved Him.

Love is base principle of all growing things, whether it is in the home, the church, or the state.

John said, "Let us love one another: for love is of God: and everyone that loveth is born of God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins."

1 John 4:10

There are some things that Jesus Said through the mouth of John that we are not to love. Namely, "Love not the world neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever." (1 John 2:15-17)

So then, if our homes are to grow, build them upon love. You can't be a wolf in the home on Monday, and a saint in the church on Sunday. The Pastors must LOVE their churches and your church will love you. And if we love our State work, our State will grow into a greater horizon.

REV. WYATT ASKS

Has God Changed? Can God Change?

There are some sincere questions and some sincere people asking them — wanting to know 'Has God changed? Can God change? Does he fit our modern age? And is he different now than he was in the Old Testament Days?'

These and similar questions are sometimes asked by very sincere people who are perplexed or somewhat distraught by the claim of many present day scholars and theologians.

There are times when a new Christian, impressed by the mercy and love of passionate toward His enemies. An uninstructed believer, when confronted with these ideas, may become utterly confused and ask, "Has God changed?"

The Rev. Charles Wyatt is chaplain at the Jean, Nevada, correctional institution

God, becomes quite puzzled when someone points out passages in the Old Testament, where the God of Israel appears cruel, barbaric and narrow. Enemies of the Christian faith can glibly say that God loved only one nation and hated all others before Christ came. Or they may go on to declare that the New Testament must contradict the Old, for it presents God as being more universal in His grace and more com-

I can sympathize with an immature Christian who is heartbroken because of the untimely death of a mate, a son, or a daughter and wonders how a loving God could permit such a tragedy. He may experience a deep emotional struggle and ask such pointed questions as, "Doesn't God have the same compassion He had when Jesus Christ was here on earth? Doesn't God really possess all power? Has God changed?"
