The PTA also awarded five scholarships to high school seniors: Anthony Washington, Bonanza High; Margaret Armstrong, Chaparral High; Lillian Baldwin, Eldorado High; and Elona Ballou and Chrystal Martin, Rancho High.

Trustee Brewster Heads Busing Meeting

The ad hoc committee of school integration, established by the Clark County Trustees last month, is scheduled to begin investigating the possibility of revamping the busing program, Trustee Virginia Brewster reported.

Brewster, chairperson of the committee, said representatives from the Las Vegas area counsel PTA, the Greater Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, the Clark County Ministerial Association, the Black Ministerial Alliance, the Latin Chamber of Commerce and the NAACP will sit on the committee.

In addition, she said board members not already on the committee will be given a representative. The total number of committee members will total about 15, she said. Trustees Bob Forbuss and Tom Semmens are on the committee.

The first meeting of the committee is scheduled for June 3. The first public hearings will be held on July 8. Brewster said minutes of the meetings will be released for public review.
