WORKSHOP

A special commission, appointed in 1980 by Gov. Robt. List to review the problems facing minority businessmen, were scheduled to hold this week a series of mini-workshops.

Dr. James McMillan, chairman of the Minority Business Enterprise Commission, appointed commission member Gwen Brown to arrange the workshops—primarily aimed at addressing the stumbling blocks to minorities.

The workshops were to be held in Las Vegas and Reno. The exact dates of the workshops were not available at press time.

NUCLEUS ASSOC.

The Nucleus Associates Local Development Co., an organization in the process of buying the Golden West Shopping Center, currently owned by First Western Savings and Loan, attended the 9,000 delegate convention of the International Council of Shopping Centers at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

According to Jackie Brantley, who handles public relations for the corporation, the four owners of the corporation, all of whom are Strip dealers, attended the four seminars at the convention.
