20 UNITS APPLY FOR CETA AID

Twenty organizations have applied to the state Comprehensive Employment Training Act for the $222,000 that it will distribute in July, a CETA official reported.

The state CETA Council will meet July 1 to consider the applications, said Jack Meline, CETA management analyst.

Meline said the council will make its recommendations to Gov. List, who in turn will forward his decisions on the recommendations to the Department of Labor.

The agencies selected for funding will be chosen by a competitive process, Meline said.

Those agencies that are funded can begin their programs Oct. 1, Meline said.

CLARK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Students at Clark County Community College take advantage of taped lessons and programmed books in the developmental Learning Center. Students with busy schedules can study without the time limits in the classroom.

Communications Class

There is a unique system of learning taking place at Clark County Community College as has been for about seven years now thanks to the efforts of Dr. Harvey Godorov, Speech and Communications instructor at CCCC.

In the Oral Communications Classes, anyone can be a star. The student's speeches are video taped during the class hour and played back to them and the class for critiquing purposes.

The taping of the speeches was the brain-storm of Dr. Godorov and he says that since its induction seven years ago the grades and efforts of his students have shown remarkable improvement.

Dr. Godorov stated that once students are able to see for themselves how they look and sound to other people they are better equipped to make the improvements on their speaking techniques.

One student commented that the class has helped him tremendously in that he knows now what to do with his hands, body and facial expressions while he's speaking.

Dr. Godorov also has plans to improve on the teaching system and feels that it will begin to catch on in other areas besides Speech. "As far as I know," says Godorov, "we are the only institution in the state that uses this system in speaking classes." But, he says it has and is being used for fields such as law and medicine.
