For a FRESH START
in SPIRITS

Lei Stroughter

For a Fresh Start in Spirits, step into a 3 piece set by Robert Courtney of New York. Red print in silk chiffon is an exciting way to step out on the dance floor and have a good time.

For a new look in hats the impact is stunning, striking and sophisticated. Brims are coming back stronger than ever and the pork pie hat is only one example. You can purchase this wool beauty in beige, rust, forest green, doe skin or cocoa brown.

Teamed with the pork pie hat is a georgette evening pant set in doe skin or black, for the sophisticated mood.

NLV Trade Center To Open 1982

A multi-million dollar vocational technical trade center planned for construction in the heart of North Las Vegas is slated to open by 1982.

The project goes out to bid this month and for Clark County School Board Trustees Donald Faiss and Virginia Brewster the center is a long awaited dream come true. Both have been pushing for such a facility in North Las Vegas since their school board campaigns in 1976.

The center will be built on Brooks Avenue between Commerce and Revere on approximately eight acres of land with room for expansion. The estimated cost for the 37,752 square-foot facility is $2.75 million.
