PERSONAL ATTENTION

Seek His kingdom, and these things shall be yours, as well. Luke 12:31, 22-31; Psalm 125

Every 10 years the United States government takes the census.

Information is tabulated on every person in the land. Last year a judge in New York made the Census Bureau add 1,000 people because the minorities weren't correctly counted. All the data gathered is fed into computers and suddenly the individual becomes just a dot on a piece of tape. God does not employ automated or mass production

Adam, "Where are you?" He has dealt with His people as individuals. On Mount Sinai He said: "Thou shalt....Thou shalt not." No amount of skillful hiding in the forest of statistics will afford escape from His dividuals? In an hour of extreme anguish, He gave personal attention to the dying suffering thief on the cross to the right of Him, saying:

Today you will be with me in paradise." Later He dealt in similar fashion with a disciple who had denied Him: "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me?"

Such personal attention is offered to every one of Christ's followers. Doesn't it make you feel good to know that Jesus knows, and knowing, that He cares?

TRIAL SET TO TEST FATE OF GREATER FAITH

A trial, scheduled to take place on July 17, will ultimately decide who is to have control of the Greater Faith Baptist Church in North Las Vegas.

District Court Judge Joe Pavlikowski issued a ruling which prohibits Rev. Bervin Oats from conducting services in the church and places the facility in the care of Deacons Bernard Jones and Albert Jordan, until the issue is resolved.

The problems at the church are a result of Rev. Oats' having been fired on May 24th by the two deacons, whom Oats claims did not have the authority to fire him. He had been hired as pastor of the church on a trial basis last August and on a permanent basis last January.

Greater Faith Baptist Church was founded by a prominent community leader, the late Rev. Prentiss Walker. His widow, Annie Walker, who is also a deaconess of the church, says that Rev. Oats is trying to take over the church her husband had built and not pay her for its use.
