

ONE WOUNDED, TWO ARRESTED AT DOOLITTLE

Doolittle Park was the site of the wounding of a 14 year old girl and the arrest of two men on weapons charges last week during a gang fight.

Arrested were Tony Hill, age 18, of 2730 Sandy Lane, who was booked on charges of unlawful possession of a sawed-off shotgun and Leroy Wilson, age 18, of 1177 Hart Avenue, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon on a police officer. An additional man is still being sought in connection with the incident.

The girl, who has not been identified, was released from Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital after being treated for a superficial gunshot wound in her leg.

Police reported that they heard gunshots in the park about 9:30 p.m. Wednesday. Upon approaching the two men in the parking lot of the park, one of the men fired a shot-gun blast at the police officers. However, police took the two men into custody without returning the gunfire.

MAN HELD IN MURDER CASE

Alfred Morgan, aged 30, was shot and killed outside his home at 919 Weaver Drive late last Saturday. Arrested at the scene and later charged with open murder was Charles Edward Summers, 26, of 1701 N. "J" Street.

Apparently the shooting was related to an argument between Morgan and a juvenile girl. Summers reportedly told police investigators that he fired a 22-caliber rifle at Morgan after Morgan approached him in a threatening manner.

DUNN TO RECEIVE SECOND TRIAL

For the second time, Rev. Albert Dunn, pastor of Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church and long time civil rights activist, is scheduled to go on trial for conspiracy in a counterfeiting ring.

The trial, which is to take place on August 11, will again be heard before U.S. District Judge Harry Claiborne. Assistant U.S. Attorney Ruth Cohen will again prosecute the case.

In connection with a $10 million counterfeiting operation which was uncovered by the Secret Service, Dunn was tried for but acquitted of counterfeiting charges. However, the jury convicted him of conspiracy.

After Rev. Dunn had served more than seven months of his 3 year sentence, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals overturned that conviction, because the government had failed to corroborate the testimony of a co-defendant, who had been granted immunity and testified against Dunn. The appellate court called the prosecution's case "extremely thin."

Rev. Dunn's defense attorney Tom Pitaro succeeded in getting a new trial ordered for Dunn. However, Attorney Cal Potter has been appointed to represent him during the forthcoming trial.

Oldtimers Reflect On Lifestyles

Daddy-O

The SENTINEL readers through its December 4, 1980 issue, were introduced to Las Vegas' King of Gaming affectionately known as Daddy-O. James T. Morrison, a native of Magnolia, Georgia was born on April 11, 1889. He picked up the prideful name of Daddy-O through his travels in Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit and finally Las Vegas.

Despite his 92 years, Daddy-O, twice married, still maintains his keen eye for the young girls. He misses nothing passing by.

In Las Vegas, he has worked at the old El Rancho, Flamingo and Dunes. He is currently employed as a casino host at the Silver City.

Arthur Reed

In Oakland, Calif., Arthur Reed is the one who is really making the headlines. Reed has just reached his 121st birthday. During these years, he has never smoked or drank.

"I made 121 years because they made me out of good dirt," said Reed. "They took the time and made me good."

Reed, who lives with his 60-year-old step-daughter, Sally Robinson, has been married three times, but has no children.

He retired five years ago - at age 116 - from the Phoenix Iron Works in Oakland. Despite his age, Reed is still feisty but not interested in marriage.

Daddy-O, on the contrary says he is now one of the Strip's most eligible bachelors.
