CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT ACTIVITIES

October is the month that the official scholarship Semifinalists are announced by the national scholarship foundations. Two of the most prestigious — National Merit and National Achievement Program — have released the names of those outstanding youngsters whose exemplary tests scores have qualified them as Semifinalists for the 1981-82 school year.

BONANZA COMMUNICATES WITH PARENTS

Members of the Administrative Team from Bonanza High School held a Parent Meeting on Sept. 29 in the Multipurpose Room of the E.O.B. Office on Comstock and Balzar.

Ray Morgan, principal of Bonanza High School, discussed extensively the competency law and the Competency Examination which must be passed by a student before receiving a high school diploma. Dr. Bernard Hamilton, one of Bonanza's newly hired deans, informed the parents of the revised attendance policy. Benefits of the Title I Program were also discussed.

Sylvia McClinton, Family/Teacher Aide for Title I and Rev. Sylvester Rogers, Human Relations Worker, were also in attendance.

HOLIDAYS
